It presents articles around the area of culture, English language teaching and learning, linguistics, and literature. Contents include analysis, studies, applications of theories, research reports, and materials development. It is firstly published in December 2001. Ever since 2005 its manuscripts could be read online through www.journalcelt.com. By the year 2016, it launched its OJS (Open Journal System) through https://journal.unika.ac.id/index.php/celt and from 2017 it is recorded in Crossref’s https://doi.org/10.24167 and in https://doaj.org/toc/2502-4914. Based on the decree from Hasil Akreditasi Jurnal Ilmiah, SK Direktur Jenderal Penguatan Riset dan Pengembangan Kementerian Riset Teknologi, dan Pendidikan Tinggi Republik Indonesia, No. 30/E/KPT/2018 with regards to the accreditation status of academic journals, dated on 24 October 2018, Celt is nationally accredited for the next five years as a Sinta 2 journal.

1. File types: The manuscript submitted to Celt should be in 2016 Microsoft Word program, if not then it should be saved in 97-2003 format (.doc or .docx).
2. Manuscript types:
   We accept only research report papers that should be within the range of 4,000 – 8,000 words excluding the title, abstract, key words, and references.
3. Plagiarism checker:
   Once a manuscript is sent, the editors have the right to scan the manuscripts with a plagiarism checker, such as Turn-it-in, Unicheck, Grammarly, etc.
4. Grammar checker:
   Authors are encouraged to do their own grammar check, which can be done through an online grammar software, such as Grammarly.
5. Manuscript format:
   The manuscript should be written in academic English language, typewritten in Goudy Old Style 12 font, single spaced. Non-12 font size are used for the title, abstract, header, footer, and text or numbers within tables. The margin should use the normal Microsoft Word margin (1 inches or 2.5cm left, right, top, and bottom). The paper size is B5 or custom size 18.2cm x 25.7cm (see template).
6. Manuscript template:
   Authors are encouraged to download the latest manuscript template available from http://journal.unika.ac.id/index.php/celt to ensure consistency of the Celt manuscript format.
7. Titles, abstract, and keywords:
   The manuscript has to have a title, which should reflect the content of the manuscript and may not exceed a total of 15 words. Underneath the title should be an abstract within the range of 150 – 300 words, which is in English (normal font), followed by an Indonesian abstract underneath (italicized font). Three to five key words should be provided also in English (normal font) and Indonesian (italicized font).
8. Organization:

   Celt journal receives manuscripts based on a research report that should have sub-headings that would normally be under the sections of an Introduction, Literature Review, Methods, Findings, Conclusion, and References. In the references section, Celt journal appreciates manuscripts to use the APA style and cite references from previous Celt publications.

9. Author(s) contact details:

   Author(s) should provide contact details including full name (with titles), emails, institution and home mailing address, and telephone numbers on a separate file for the purpose of anonymous/ double-blind peer-review.

10. Footnote:

   In addition to informing who the author(s) of the article is (are), author(s) are advised to use footnotes to add additional information/explanation on a written text or additional readings to support the text. Footnotes are used to have additional information which may disturb the flow of the article if left inside the original article.

11. Citations and References:

   Starting from the re-accredited 2014 version, the Celt manuscript conforms to the APA style for citation and references. Please refer to APA Publication Manual for reference, which is available at any website. You may also make use of the in-built APA referencing system used by Microsoft computer programs or see the following steps:

   Reference List
   - Full list of referencing examples

   Imber-Black (2009) found that dogs can be a source of therapy for sick people.

   In support of the idea that the drug industry does have a relationship to psychiatry, Smith’s (2008) research show that pharmacists would do annual workshops with psychiatrist.

   The list must be on a new page at the end of the article’s document and adjust the position to be centred. Note that the bibliography should be sorted alphabetically

   When encountering multiple works by the same author, they must be ordered by date, and if the works are in the same publication year, they are to be ordered alphabetically by the title and allocated a letter after the date. There are also special citation format like group/organisation and secondary source citation. All of these variety can be seen in the following example:

   Multiple works from one year: (Jacoby, 2012a) Or (Jacoby, 2012b)

   Group/Organisation citation: (International Folklore Association, 2014)

   - In-Text Citation

     This section must be included following attached quotes and paraphrase taken from another author’s work.
In-Text Citation is basically a citation that is located within the main body of the article to refer a direct quote or paraphrase. They should be correspondent to a reference in the bibliography. The in-text citation includes the surname of the author and date of publication. For an example, the author Dante Aliegheri, this will be written:

- Direct Quotes (under 40 words)

  Culture is “a system of belief” that includes... (Hall, 2005, p.13).

  Hall (2005) states that the “system of belief” in culture is ...

  The study showes that research in culture is “a reflection of...” (Smith & Tyler, 2013, para. 8).

  On the other hand, Goddard (2014) believes that “the data was unreliable” (Methods section, para. 6).

- Block Quotes (direct quotes over 40 words)

  Indent block quotes five spaces or half an inch from the left margin. Do not use quotation marks. Like used in the rest of the paper, APA block quotes should use double spacing. In block quotes, the period goes before the parentheses. This is different from short quotes. An example of a block quotation is as follows:

  Upon discussion about the outcome of research, Williamson states that:

  Data that is collected from interviews are usually coded first to enable some kind of categorization, which later gives researchers the ability to analyse and present as the outcome. (2008, p. 205)

- Multiple Authors

  In some piece of works, there are usually one with multiple authors and co-authors. To cite this, here are the examples:

  Two Authors: Anderson and Sully (2018) state.... Or..... (Anderson & Sully, 2018)

  Three, Four, or Five Authors: Anderson, Sully, and Clinton (2018)... Or....(Anderson, Sully, & Clinton, 2018)

  Six or more Authors: Only the first author’s name followed by “et al”, for an example: Anderson et al, (2018).... Or.... (Anderson et al, 2018)

  No Authors: If the author is unknown, the first words of the reference will be used. This is usually the title of the source.

- How to cite a book (Title, not chapter) in APA Format

  Book referencing is very basic for a bibliography, the basic format of a book reference is as follows:

- How to cite an edited book in APA Format

  For this citation an extra inclusion: (Ed(s)) is needed. The format is as follows:

- How to cite a chapter in an edited book in APA Format

In edited books there are many articles written by different authors. To cite a single chapter, a different format is needed. The format is as follows:

- How to cite an E-Book in APA format

This citation is almost similar to Book references only the publisher is swapped with a URL. The basic format is in the example below:

- How to cite a chapter of an E-Book in APA format

This citation is almost similar to an edited book chapter reference, only the publisher is swapped with a URL. The format is as follows:

- How to cite a Journal Article in Print or Online APA Format

Articles that are not from book, the publisher and its location are not included. For a journal article citation, they are replaced with the journal title, volume number, issue number and page number. The format is as follows:

- How to cite a newspaper articles in print/online (APA format)

This is the citation that almost completely different from the others. The newspaper must also conclude the type of the cited article in the bibliography. The format is as follows:

- How to cite Magazine Articles in Print or Online (APA format)

- How to cite Non-Print Material in APA Format

Non-print material can be like an image retrieved from a URL, movie, tv programme, song or even a website. There are several formats like shown below:
